

ISM DSM Course entry requirements

All modules: Minimum age 17.

Module 1

ISM DSM awareness – no previous entry requirement.

Module 2

ISM DSM Designated Person

Designated Person should have a minimum of formal education as follows:

1. Qualifications from a tertiary institution recognized by the Administration or by the recognized organization, within a relevant field of management, engineering or physical science, or
2. Qualifications and seagoing experience as a certified ship officer pursuant to the International Convention on Standards of Training, Certification and Watchkeeping for Seafarers (STCW), 1978, as amended, or
3. Other formal education combined with not less than three years practical senior level experience in ship management operations.

Module 3

ISM DSM Internal Auditor

1. Qualifications from a tertiary institution recognized by the Administration or by the recognized organization, within a relevant field of management, engineering or physical science, or
2. Qualifications and seagoing experience as a certified ship officer pursuant to the International Convention on Standards of Training, Certification and Watchkeeping for Seafarers (STCW), 1978, as amended, or
3. Other formal education combined with not less than three years practical senior level experience in ship management operations.

Note:

For small vessel operators that are now being exposed to the requirements of DSM, formal qualifications in point (.3) will be valid Commercial Skippers/Masters certificates within the field of their operation.